

Name: _____

Period: _____

CHAPTER	22	SECTIONS	“Boom Times” American Cultures 1	TOTAL POINTS
		1		/20

I. Define the following terms (2 pts. total):

1. assembly line _____

2. scientific management _____

II. Complete the following sentences (1 pt. each):

1. The Republicans’ _____ stance and the abundant supplies of energy such as, _____, _____, natural _____, and waterpower as well as a vast network of _____ power plants led to the boom times of the 1920s.

2. The widespread availability of electricity created a demand for a dizzying array of new electrical _____, and _____ and _____ sales boomed.

3. The _____ line allowed manufacturers to reduce the _____ of cars, bringing them within reach of _____ American families.

4. The new industrial giant, the _____ industry, consumed huge quantities of _____, _____, _____ and other materials, and _____, formerly a troublesome by-product of the petroleum industry, became the industry’s most _____ product.

5. Trained observers conducted “_____ -and-_____” studies to identify these tasks and then set _____ of production that people and machines had to meet.

6. By 1930, _____, _____, and _____ had almost completely replaced horse-drawn carriages, and even _____ and _____ cars lost riders to Ford's "Tin Lizzie" and other automobiles.
7. Cars linked _____ regions to _____ areas, making it easier for rural residents to _____ to booming cities and for city dwellers to visit the country.
8. By the twenties, cars were already causing _____, _____ jams, and _____ problems, but even more serious was the steadily climbing _____ rate.
9. _____ stores which slowly replaced corner markets stocked a wide variety of products, because of _____ and quick-freezing techniques preserved fresh foods longer and allowed them to be shipped over _____ distances.
10. People also bought _____ because of easy _____, and by mid-decade, buyers purchased about _____% of cars on credit.

III. Answer questions 1, 2, 3 & 5 on page 651 of your textbook, using complete sentences. If necessary, use a separate sheet of paper. (2 pts. each)

